PATHWAY SERVICES

➤ Pathway Services, located at 218 Dew Drop Road, York, Pennsylvania, is a part of Jessica and Friends Community, a non-profit 501(c) (3) organization which also offers residential services and respite care for individuals with developmental disabilities, within a faith-based environment.

...the path to potential

➤ Pathway Services is a faith-based, community-integrated day program which provides life-long learning opportunities for autistic and intellectually disabled individuals who are 18 years of age and older.

➤ Pathway Services provides daily training and activities in:

Technology/computer skills

Communication skills

The Arts, including music, drama, arts and crafts

Domestic and life skills

Healthy life-styles, including exercise

Volunteer opportunities

➤ PATHWAY SERVICES promotes the development of each individual's uniqueness and individuality, enabling them to become more independent and productive members of the community. The staff seeks to identify interests, build skills and assist each person on their own "path to potential" to achieve their life goals.
